

PTA Programs Feature Education

Executive board of Hillside School announces plans for the coming year which include the appearance, in March, of Joe Yokum, disc jockey. Yokum is scheduled to conduct a music appreciation night and explain the attraction to teen-agers, of Rock n' Roll.

President Bill King of the school PTA in complimenting program chairman, Margaret Davidson, for developing the year's activities, said the programs will offer education for parents.

He explained there would be a parent education program in October, following the September Open House. November will feature a film highlighting the American heritage, a movie on the crossing of the Mayflower.

Hillside students will entertain their parents in December with their annual Christmas pageant.

January will be devoted to recreation, emphasizing family activities.

Founders' Day will be observed in February and Joe

Torrance Boy Weds in Virginia

Mrs. Toby Adrian, 21226 Grace ave., announces the marriage July 20, of her son, Pfc. Ernest Kester and Miss Carol Lee Dawson of Norwalk, Virginia. The couple met while both were attending Excelsior High School. They will make their home in Williamsburg where they were married.

Kester enlisted in Torrance in November '57 and has been assigned to Fort Eustis. He was named "soldier of the week" in June and "soldier of the month" in July.

Yokum, veteran disc jockey, will appear on the March program, conducting a music appreciation night. He is scheduled to explain the attraction to teen-agers, of Rock n' Roll.

Teachers' night will be observed at the last meeting for the year, in May.

The program was approved at a poolside session of the board at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Trimble, past president.

John Beeman Weds Barbara Gill In Alexandria, Virginia, Church

Of interest locally is the last Saturday afternoon wedding of Miss Barbara Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gill of Alexandria, Va., to John Albert Beeman, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Whitney Beeman, 1518 El Prado. The marriage took place in Trinity Methodist Church of Alexandria. Dr. John F. Owens officiated at the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organdy, designed with a bouffant skirt. The embroidered organdy bodice was styled with three quarter sleeves and a scooped neckline. The fingertip veil of imported silk bridal illusion, was caught in a wreath of tulle flowers. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds and lily of the valley. Only jewelry worn was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Bride's Attendants
Mrs. Joseph Daniel Brown III, as matron of honor, wore a cocktail length gown of pale blue organdy and a straw hat trimmed with matching blue velvet bows. She carried a crescent bouquet of white camellias and blue delphinium tied with blue satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. B. Lloyd Morton, sister of the bride, Miss Janel Beeman, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. George R. Haney Jr., Mrs. Richard Snead and Miss Patricia Gill, niece of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. All were gowned similarly to the matron and carried similar bouquets.

Miss Cynthia Morton, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a short white organdy dress. She carried a miniature bouquet like the bridesmaids.

Dr. John W. Beeman of Torrance served his son as best man and ushers were William A. Gill, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Dancer, Scott Ankeny, Mason Barr, Peter Tyerman, and Joseph Daniel Brown III.

The bride's mother wore a gown of lace and silk organza in mauve shade, matching accessories, and a corsage of white camellias.

The bridegroom's mother wore pale blue and cafe au lait chiffon dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white giamillas.

Following a reception at the social hall of the church, the newlyweds left for a motor trip to New England. Mrs. William A. Gill Jr. registered the reception guests who included the Dr. John W. Beeman family of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Val B. Wiles of Downey.

The bridegroom is a medical student at George Washington University School of Medicine.
